What are the impacts on community wellbeing of social relations in conservation projects?

Authors: Kate Barclay^a, Michael Fabinyi^{ab}, Annie Young Song^a, Yoshi Ota^c, Jessica Vandenberg^c, Nick McClean^a

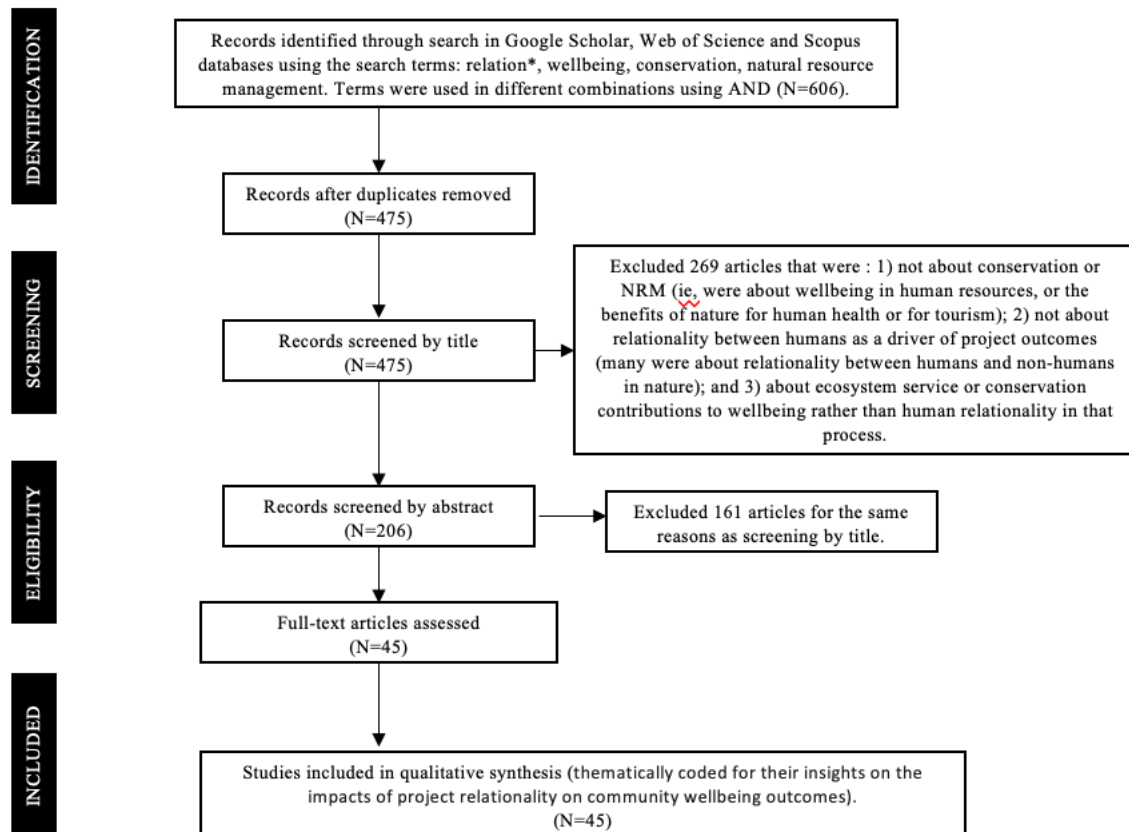

Figure S1. describes the semi-systematic screening and search process undertaken to find papers on the social relations community wellbeing nexus in conservation and community-based natural resource management projects. This search was in addition to papers identified through the knowledge co-production process, both as part of the critical review, as described in the introduction and methods section of the paper.
